From your Student Council

Sabres! Our annual heart game starts today! Be sure to get the envelope with the hearts with your TAGS written on it from the office. Today, all the boys in each TAG will get a heart to wear. REMEMBER, today the girls will try to talk to the boys in between classes and lunch to take their heart away. So, boys if you talk to girls today, you must give your heart to the person you talked to. At the end of the day, the girl with the most hearts can go to the office for a prize! Tomorrow, the girls will start with a heart and the boys will try to get the girls talking.
