From Mr. Perez

Just a refresher on the rules for St Andrews annual heart game! The rules are as follows: each day either all the boys in the school or girls in the school will receive a heart sticker to wear on their chest. In order to ensure a fair game The hearts are to be kept visible and on you at all times. Those without the hearts are to try to get as many different hearts as possible from those that have them. How do we get hearts? The way to get hearts is by getting someone with a heart to talk to you. For example if the girls have the hearts for the day, then all the boys are trying to get girls to talk to them in order to get their hearts. The game is not to played during class time, but after you receive your heart in tag/ focus the game can start and be played during breaks in between classes and lunchtime. If you have five or more hearts come to the office to see if you have won! Today the boys will wear the hearts and Thursday the girls will wear the hearts. Good luck and happy heart hunting!”

“Also a reminder from your student council, we will have a free valentines themed civvies day on Thursday so remember to wear red, pink, or white!”
