

Daily Announcements

Thursday, February-06-25

From Mrs. Arthurs

Congratulations to Theo Keller who placed third on the island and Luca Soligo who placed ninth. Both boys competed in an event called the “Kracken” which was held at Brentwood High school this past weekend. The event is a grueling 2000m rowing ergometer competition. Well done boys!

Goody bags and cookies will be sold today at lunch as Friday is a no school day. The funds raised go towards the Canadian Rowing Championships held in St. Catherine’s, Ontario this June. Thanks again for your support.

From Ms. Sanders

CLC 11 A & B: Class will take place today in room 237 but ONLY for makeup work. Bring your questions, confusion, and maybe your procrastination, and spend this time getting caught up. If you have submitted all your assignments and are completely up-to-date, please choose another focus subject.

Re Voices in Motion Choir

There is still time to join in this fun and valuable volunteer activity. We meet on Wednesday afternoons in Sacred Heart Church (at the top of the hill). See Ms. Sanders or just go straight to this website to register: <https://voicesinmotionchoirs.org/high-school-consent/>

From Ms. Fowlie and Ms. Sanders

Today is the last day for Semester 2 course changes.

From Ms. Fowlie

Students who are in Ms. Fowlie’s CLC 12 Tuesday class: please try to make today’s Thursday class right now. If you’re unable to make it, please let me know and I’ll find a time to meet with you. Thanks!

The junior boys basketball team defeated a very solid Parkland’s team 57- 53 in the first round of the playoffs. Jakob Boyd had an outstanding game hitting four three-pointers and scoring 15 points in total! Mateo and Joe each chipped in 10 and ripped down rebounds galore! Emile played solid by keeping Parklands best player under control. Stay tuned for the next playoff game at a court near you!! Go Sabres!!!!

The senior boys played a tough game to PCS Wed Eve. They trailed by 10 points for most of the game and this young team showed some great character and growth despite the loss. Austin scored four 3 pointers and hit 39 points, while Alex Wignall chipped in with 15. Goodluck boys on your game at GNS Thursday!