

Daily Announcements

Friday, October-17-25

Please continue to support the World Food Day food drive.

We are closing in on 350 food items. If everyone in the school contributes 2 items, we will have over 800 items. Please bring your donations to TAG on Monday morning.

HURRAY!! IT'S CLUBS DAY AT ST. ANDREW'S

Want to increase your enjoyment of your high school years? Gain new friends and learn new skills? Increase your happiness, confidence, and sense of connection? Maybe even get set up for a great capstone project? You should join a school club. Check out the many options today in the Commons at lunchtime and sign up for something.

Bonus... a very special Sabre will be there! With candy.

Attention: Students in Mrs. Paul's Lit. Studies 10 class

We will meet in the classroom this morning. Bring a pencil, eraser and a book to read.

Peer Counsellors

Please come to the commons at 11:30 to help set up.

GO SABRES!!! Good Luck to our 13 Swimmers who are off to ISLANDS tomorrow in Nanaimo, to compete at the Island Championships/Provincial Qualifiers.

From your Career Teachers to Grades 10 to 12

Are you interested in attending an art or design school? You should plan to attend the Art Fair on Nov 4th from 4-6 at St. Michael's University School. There will be many excellent schools represented there. You are guaranteed to learn a lot about the possibilities.

Are you curious about a career in medicine or health science?

St. Andrew's students are invited to attend a virtual conference on Thursday, November 20, 2025 8:30 am – 2:15 pm PST

Participants would be out of class, and would use a school computer to zoom into a keynote lecture. They would then participate in two interactive workshops of their choice, pre-selected from a catalogue of options, and discussion with a panel of academics/professionals from various related fields. See Ms Sanders if you are interested in participating.

Guess the Show!!!

Update: Last day to enter the contest will be October 23 and the great reveal will be at the October Assembly. Who will win the VIP Package? 2 last clues will be given next week.

Clue #4 - It was a cartoon before it was a Broadway Show.
